

How Do People Make Money On the Internet?

There are actual folks earning money daily on the Internet. The key is discovering the "right" opportunity that befits you.

Too many people jump into Internet ventures with dreams of fast easy money without having to work. These 'something for nothing' mentality folks always fail and are the first to say a venture didn't work. If they were honest with themselves and others, they would have to admit that it wasn't the venture that didn't work, it was them that didn't work!

There is no such thing as a 'get rich quick without working' internet venture! If there was such a venture, we'd all be in it and we'd all be rich beyond our wildest dreams! The reality is, as with any other business venture, Internet ventures call for work. A big part of the work is getting the word out about your business. With internet ventures majority of your time and effort will go towards advertising.

With hard work, dedication, and advertising, anyone can be successful with a legitimate web based business opportunity.

To get started making money online here are a few ideas that you can put to use immediately with very little out of pocket expenses:

Get a blog. Blogs are good personal outlets, but more importantly, blogs generate revenue. Many bloggers designate areas on their blogs to sell advertising. A growing number of bloggers make money through pay to blog networks like PayPerPost or ReviewMe. The most common way that bloggers make money is by having advertisements from Google AdSense or Kontera on their blogs.

Selling domain names and webhosting services is a great online money maker. Godaddy offers a reseller program for a nominal fee. When you sign up as a reseller with Godaddy its like starting your own web service business. You'll get your very own automated website where people can buy domain names and hosting.

An internet based travel agency is your ticket to getting a piece of the travel industry pie. YTB offers a referring travel agent opportunity which comes with a professional website where people can search and book travel. Its an automated system that requires a small investment that practically pays for itself with the right advertising.

Join a dropshipping program and start selling products on Ebay. You can even open your own Ebay store on Ebay!

Create and sell content. If you can write there is plenty of money to be made writing. Ghost write blogs, articles, press releases, or ebooks. Join networks like Guru.com to offer your services as a freelancer or start your own website. Become a member of revenue sharing sites such as AssociatedContent or HubPages.
